Australian Women's Health Alliance is a national voice for health.

This means we:

• speak up about health issues that affect women have members across every state and territory in Australia.

Our aim is to achieve gender equity in health for all women.

Gender equity is when things are fair for people of all genders.

We support women's heath by doing things like:

• talking to government about women's health

Australian Government

telling others how women's health can be supported

- linking state and territory groups that support women's health
- asking for improved access to women's health
- sharing information and resources about women's health
- doing research on women's health

- supporting women to take part in all decisions about their health
- doing other activities that support women's health and wellbeing.

This is called our Statement of Purposes.

Membership is open to all people that support the work of the Australian Women's Health Alliance.

There are 2 types of membership:

Word list

Bank Transfer is when you move money from one bank account to another. This is usually done on the internet.

A person with Disability is someone that faces barriers to taking part in some or all areas of life. Sometimes we can see disability. Sometimes we cannot. There are lots of different types of disability.

Gender is a word that is used to talk about how people see and express themselves as women, girls, men or boys, or something else. The ways we see and express ourselves have been shaped by many things, including the social and historical times in which we live.

Gender equity is when things are fair for everyone regardless of your gender.

LGBTIQA+ means diverse sexualities and genders. The letters in LGBTIQA+ stand for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Intersex, Queer, Questioning, Asexual and other.

A Migrant is a person that moved to Australia from a different country.

PayPal is an online website that helps people to give and receive money. Australian Women's Health Alliance uses PayPal for when people want to join and pay money to become a member.

A Refugee is someone that came to Australia to be safe. Refugee's often come from countries that are or have been in war.

Statement of Purposes is a list of sentences that tell you how Australian Women's Health Alliance support women's health.

A person on a Temporary Visa is in Australia for a short time. They are usually in Australia for a holiday, work or to study. They will go back home at some time.
